Students who received the highest grade in certain courses will receive the Am Jur Award. Two outstanding students from each year's class will receive the annual Corpus Juris Secundum and Hornbook awards. An outstanding graduating senior will receive the Law Week award. The American Bar Association will award the Land Use award to two students. The Thurgood Marshall Award will be made by BALSAs, and the students' Faculty Appreciation Award will be made by the SBA. Names of the winners of these awards are on the bulletin board.

A champagne reception will follow and the evening will end with a beer and dance party.

PLACEMENT NEWS

Attention June 1983 Graduates

Do you feel like you have tried every job search approach short of hiring Sherlock Holmes? If your magnifying glass has just cracked from overuse, come and get some fresh ideas on job hunting on May 2, 4:30 - 6:00 p.m. in room 325. This short amount of time invested now could save you countless hours of work later.

Spring Job Fair

Extensive mailings and many telephone calls have yielded several job postings for both attorney and summer clerk positions. We have discovered, as a result of this effort, that firms that are small and medium size would prefer to list their jobs directly rather than participate in a structured on campus program. The telephone campaign (an integral element in the preparation phase of this Job Fair) proved to be most fruitful. Firms were cordial and many were interested in listing their positions with our office. WE WOULD LIKE TO THANK ALL OF THE STUDENTS WHO VOLUNTEERED THEIR VALUABLE TIME IN THIS EFFORT! THANK YOU!
